Embark on a week-long adventure through two top-tier Swiss ski destinations, carving your way down the snowy Alps alongside fellow enthusiasts on skis and snowboards.

Inventions, discoveries, adventures, and successes. Passion, visions, and pioneering spirit. All this has made Davos what it is today. Like our forefathers, we are facing the future with a pioneering approach. Now. A true holiday classic ultimately wins over visitors with its rich past, but above all with its timeless presence that promises a first-class future. Story to be continued... A great opportunity to get together with other winter sports enthusiasts from Asia but also from Davos, exchange ideas and enjoy the fantastic winter wonderland of Davos Klosters together on or off the slopes. From improving your technique on almost endless runs on the ski slopes to freeriding in fresh powder snow or learning new tricks in the fun park and halfpipe, it's all here. Of course, the apres-ski and dinner party must not be missed in the evening. Meet some local ski and snowboard enthusiasts and get inspired by the new generation of skiers and snowboarders from Switzerland.

St. Moritz epitomizes the perfect blend of glamour, lifestyle, sports, and unspoiled nature. With a rich history of pioneering spirit, this historic alpine town has proudly hosted the Winter Olympics twice and remains a beacon for winter tourism. Ski and snowboard enthusiasts can explore the expansive slopes of Corviglia, Corvatsch, and Diavolezza & Lagalb, boasting over 350 kilometers of pristine slopes complemented by top-notch infrastructure. But the adventure doesn't stop there. After exhilarating days on the slopes, indulge in group après-ski activities and thrilling night sledding under the glow of artificial lights. Prepare to be captivated by the enchanting alpine scenery, where breathtaking snowy vistas and tranquil frozen lakes await at every turn.

We eagerly anticipate your arrival in both Davos and St. Moritz, ready to share unforgettable skiing and snowboarding experiences together.

Winter Camp Asia in Davos and St. Moritz - The pioneers in winter sports since 1864

St. Moritz – Top of the World

St. Moritz – where glamour, lifestyle, sports and untamed nature come together in an exclusive cocktail. St. Moritz has demonstrated its pioneering spirit throughout the ages and is renown as the birthplace of Alpine winter tourism. Ski and snowboard areas include Corviglia, Diavolezza and Corvatsch, combined offering around 350 kilometres of pistes with a state-of-the-art infrastructure.

Corviglia is not just about the altitude, the many hours of sunshine and the spectacular panorama; Corviglia has an unrivalled history that includes the staging of two Winter Olympics (1928, 1948) and five FIS Alpine World Ski Championships (1934, 1948, 1974, 2003, 2017). Every day the uplifts start operating at 7.45 am, transporting snowsports enthusiasts to the ‘white carpet’. The array of pistes, the Ski Run (giant slalom with time control) and the UYN Speedcheck (for speed photos), invite winter-sports fans of all levels to enjoy the outstanding slope conditions.

Corvatsch mountain on the other hand is famous for it has powder until the end of April. It is an El Dorado for freeski and freestyle-fans and in winter 2025 will jointly host the halfpipe and slopestyle events of the FIS Freestyle World Championships, together with Corviglia. Furthermore, every Friday night is Snow Night: a night when guests can ski on the longest illuminated slope in Switzerland. And last but not least, Mt. Diavolezza captivates with its stunning mountain panorama and the eight-kilometre glacier run that takes you down to Morteratsch under the watchful gaze of Piz Palü and Piz Bernina, as a highlight.

Davos Klosters – Sports unlimited

Between Mountain Magic and Magic Mountain Davos is the highest town in Europe, famed for the diversity of sports, leisure and cultural offers, its rejuvenating climate, the HC Davos, the Spengler Cup, the Kirchner Museum, the World Economic Forum and the celebrated freestyle scene on Jakobshorn.

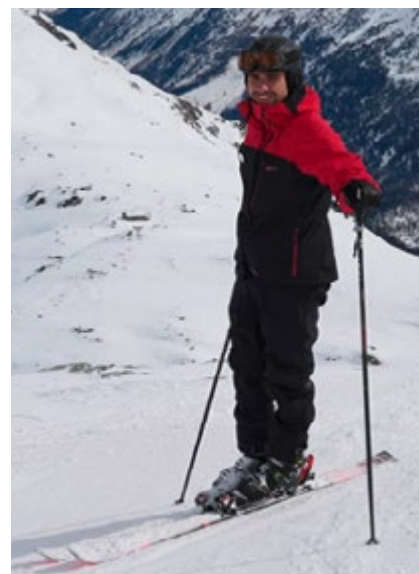

Pioneer in winter sports

Davos was at the forefront of the development of modern winter sports. The history of the world renowned Davos sledge started in the 19th century. The sledge received its name at the first historic sledge race in 1883, in Davos. In 1921 in Davos, the Hockey Club Davos was established and today it is akin to myth and living legend. 1923 witnessed the first Spengler Cup, the oldest and most famous international ice-hockey tournament in the world. The Parsenn Derby is the most traditional ski race in Switzerland and took place for the first time in 1924. Ten years later, the first t-bar ski lift in the world was put into operation on the Bolgen. In more modern times, Davos created headlines when it established the freestyle scene in the 1980s. At that time, the Jakobshorn was the only mountain on which snowboarders were permitted to use the lifts.

Having fun in 6 ski areas

Whether you are a piste fan or freeride pro: it's all downhill. Racy or leisurely, on skis or on the board and all this in the middle of the mountain world of Davos Klosters. Six skiing areas provide fun on the slopes at all levels of difficulty. But that's not all - not only the racy downhill runs are a highlight in themselves, but also the top modern lifts that make it easy to get uphill and die anew. It's up to you whether you use the perfectly groomed slopes or take one turn after the other through glittering powder.
